SUBJECT: Annexation of Freedom Oil - 1812 N. Cunningham Avenue

Introduction

The Freedom Oil Company, a family-owned business located in Bloomington, Illinois submitted the attached petition to annex a 0.656 acre parcel of land located at 1812 N. Cunningham Avenue as a prerequisite to obtain a permit for connection to the sanitary sewer system.

Background

In November 2001 the septic system for Freedom Oil gas station failed. Because the sanitary sewer was in close proximity to the site it was more economical to connect to the system versus attempt to replace the current septic system. In such a case where an unincorporated property contiguous to the City limits seeks a sewer connection it is usually a prerequisite visa vi an intergovernmental agreement with the Urbana Champaign Sanitary District that the property be annexed or have an annexation agreement to permit annexation to occur upon certain conditions.

Issues and Discussion

The Freedom Oil service station is located at the intersection of Cunningham Avenue and Kenyon Road (the Interstate 74 frontage road) directly across from the new Bigfoot service station. This business will contribute significant revenues to the City. Costs associated with this annexation are considered insignificant since the right-of-way has been in the City since 1985.

Staff Recommendation

Staff recommends that Committee of the Whole forward the attached “Ordinance Annexing Certain Territory to the City of Urbana” to the regular City Council meeting scheduled for 7:30 pm Monday, February 4, 2002.
