SUBJECT: A RESOLUTION APPROVING AND AUTHORIZING THE EXECUTION OF A PROMOTIONAL AND MARKETING AGREEMENT FOR ANNUAL URBANA SWEETCORN FESTIVAL (Urbana Business Association, FY 2017-2018)

Introduction

The first Urbana Sweetcorn Festival was held in August 1975 in the Busey Bank parking lot as a community event put on by the employees of Busey. Forty-one years later and frequented by as many as 50,000 individuals from all over Illinois and surrounding states, this same festival is now one of the largest free street festivals in downstate Illinois.

The City of Urbana provided financial support to the festival from 2005 through 2008 in the amount of $7,000 each year, and $10,000 each year from 2008 through 2014. In Calendar Year 2015, the City increased Sweetcorn Festival support to $15,000. The increase in support occurred due to an increase in festival costs, inflation, and the addition of accounting for UBA staff time.

In response to feedback on the direction and impact of the festival UBA staff has proposed major changes to the structure and focus of the Urbana Sweetcorn Festival. UBA's investment in making these changes is anticipated to better integrate the identity of the festival with Downtown Urbana, to directly benefit brick and mortar retail establishments in the Downtown, and to emphasize the contributions and talents of local and regional artists.

The attached draft resolution and agreement (Exhibit A: Draft Adopting Resolution with attached Agreement) would provide for up to $15,000 in City sponsorship for the 2017 Sweetcorn Festival. The UBA has also provided a proposal for this year's funding request as well as information on the financial performance of the 2016 Sweetcorn Festival (Exhibit B: 2017 Sweetcorn Funding Proposal and 2016 Financial Performance Report)

Discussion

In past years, the City has benefited greatly from the Sweetcorn Festival which brings additional visitors, residents, and University of Illinois students into Downtown Urbana, generating revenue in the form of hotel/motel taxes, and food and beverage taxes. During the festival, many visitors are exposed to restaurants and retail locations in Downtown Urbana that they later return to, generating future tax revenue. In addition, this year's changes are anticipated to give festival goers greatly more opportunities to interact with local businesses and artists.

The proposed agreement would maintain the 2016 agreement stipulations; providing $10,000 based on the submittal of receipts and proof of payment from the UBA, and making an additional $5,000 available based on a formula developed by the City and UBA. The formula for reimbursement of additional funds is calculated based on the Net Revenue of the Sweetcorn Festival received by the UBA. For the purpose of the agreement, Net Revenue is the festival's revenues (including the City's base $10,000 sponsorship) after subtraction of the festival's expenses (including the direct cost of UBA staff time). The reconciliation does not include any in-kind contributions or UBA overhead expenses.

In order to be financially sustainable, the UBA needs to generate net revenue from each of its programs, including the Sweetcorn Festival. The formula in the draft agreement would require the City to pay half of the difference between UBA's Net Revenue goal of $10,000 and its actual Net Revenue from the 2017 Sweetcorn Festival, up to a maximum of $5,000. The formula is designed to help UBA reach a goal of modest net revenue from running the Sweetcorn Festival, but will not assist in UBA achieving anything above this goal. Figure 1 shows a breakdown of how the formula functions.

Fiscal Impacts

The proposed 2017 Sweetcorn agreement under consideration would commit the City to an expenditure of up to $15,000, in FY 2017-18 for the Sweetcorn Festival. The costs associated with this agreement will be realized through TIF Funds.

The City is also anticipated to obligate additional budgeted funds to UBA for its organizational activities through a Promotional and Marketing Agreement in the coming weeks for FY 2017-18 as shown in Figure 2. With approval of the proposed Sweetcorn Agreement and the anticipated Promotional and Marketing Agreement, the total UBA support budgeted in FY 2017-18 would still decrease by $7,185 due to the reduction in budgeted support to UBA.

WHEREAS, the City and the UBA seek to form a mutually beneficial arrangement whereby the UBA undertakes the promotion, marketing, sponsoring, and staging of the Festival and the City agrees to provide a certain amount of funding to the UBA for such purpose.

NOW for good, valuable and mutual consideration which each Party acknowledges as having in hand received and for the mutual exchange of the covenants, terms and conditions contained in this Agreement, the Parties agree as follows:

A. CITY'S OBLIGATIONS TO THE UBA:

1. City Festival Funding: The City shall make available to the UBA up to but not more than fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000) which the UBA shall apply to defray the UBA's costs of promoting, marketing, and staging the Festival (hereinafter, "City Festival Funding") as hereinafter provided for in Paragraph A.2.

2. Disbursement of City Festival Funding: The City shall disburse City Festival Funding on a reimbursement basis and based on receipts for expenditures made by the UBA which shall be presented to the City. The City shall provide such reimbursement within fourteen (14) days following the UBA's presentment to the City of receipts for which the UBA seeks reimbursement. The UBA shall present its requests for reimbursement no more frequently than once per month.

The City shall disburse up to ten thousand dollars ($10,000) of the City Festival Funding based only on the presentments of receipts for direct out-of-pocket expenses in connection with the Festival. For purposes of this disbursement, direct out-of-pocket expenses shall not include any expenses whatsoever which is, are or may be attributable to UBA staff expenses.

The City shall disburse up to an additional five thousand dollars ($5,000) of the City Festival Funding upon the satisfaction of the following criteria:

- a. On or before January 31, 2018, the UBA shall submit to the City a financial statement which reports the actual revenue derived from and all expenses which have been actually paid by the UBA in connection with the Festival as more fully provided for in Sub-Paragraph B.3 of this Agreement. Festival revenue shall include all cash receipts derived from the Festival, cash received for sponsorships for the Festival and the City's contribution of the above-referenced ten thousand dollars ($10,000). Festival revenue shall not include any in-kind contributions, contributions for overhead costs, or exchanges (barter) of goods and/or services. Festival expenses shall include all out-of-pocket expenses which the UBA actually paid in connection with the Festival plus direct payroll expenses for UBA staff related to their work on or directly in connection with the Festival but shall not include any sum paid for overhead. "Festival Net Revenue" shall be defined as Festival revenue minus Festival expenses.
- b. The UBA agrees that its net revenue goal for the Festival occurring in 2017 ("Festival Net Revenue Goal") shall be ten thousand dollars ($10,000) of Festival Net Revenue.
- c. In the event that the Festival Net Revenue fails to equal or exceed the Festival Net Revenue Goal, the City shall make available to the UBA an amount equal to one-half the difference between the Festival Net Revenue and the Festival Net Revenue Goal up to a maximum of five thousand dollars ($5,000). By way of example and by example only, if the 20162016 Festival Net Revenue is $8,000, thereby leaving a short-fall from the 20162016 Festival Net Revenue Goal of $2,000, the City's contribution shall be $1,000 above and beyond the initial Festival Funding of ten thousand dollars ($10,000) thereby making the City's total contribution to UBA for the Festival equal to $11,000.

3. In-Kind Services: Separate and apart from the City Festival Funding provided for in Paragraph 2 of this Agreement, the City shall provide in-kind services the reasonable value of which shall not exceed ten thousand dollars ($10,000).

4. Payment of City Festival Funding and In-Kind Services: The City shall have the sole discretion whether to reimburse the UBA for any receipt which the UBA presents to the City for reimbursement but such reimbursement shall not be unreasonably withheld. The City shall value the in-kind services which it provides to, for, or for the benefit of the UBA and the Festival based on the rates which the City customarily charges for the provision of the same or similar services in connection with special public events held within the City's corporate limits.

Such accounting shall be submitted to the City in writing on or before January 31, 2017.
