DATE: February 3, 2022

SUBJECT: An Ordinance amending Urbana City Code Chapter 2, Article VI, Division 4 – Arts & Culture Commission and Arts & Culture Program

Introduction

The City Council is requested to consider the attached draft ordinance for approval to establish an Arts & Culture Commission and Program in the City of Urbana (Exhibit A: Draft Ordinance Amending Urbana City Code Chapter 2, Article VI, Division 4). This proposal was recommended by the Urbana Arts and Culture Commission at its November 9, 2021 meeting.

The proposed ordinance would add a youth member to the Urbana Arts and Culture Commission composition, open to a resident of the City of Urbana who has passed the age of 14 but who has not reached the age of 18. This youth member will not have the authority to vote on any matter considered by the Urbana Arts and Culture Program which may bind the Program, the City, or any of its departments but may vote on motions to make recommendations to the Mayor or City Council that are non-binding. The Urbana Arts and Culture Commission recommends that this member shall have a one (1) year term renewable by Mayoral appointment and which will end upon the member's 18th birthday, mirroring the conditions of the Sustainability Advisory Commission's youth commissioner term.

Background

Over the past few years, the Urbana Arts and Culture Program has taken deliberate steps to better ensure programs and initiatives serve the full diversity of the Urbana community--reflecting Urbana's broad diversity along lines of race, socio-economic class, gender, culture, ability status, and many other facets of social identity. As part of this effort, the Urbana Arts and Culture Program has sought to ensure young people are given specific opportunities and launched new programs for young adults, including Urbana's inaugural Youth Poet Laureate Program, Teen Writer's Retreat, Young Artist's Studio, and summer youth employment opportunities for teens.

As an extension of wanting to better serve young adults, the Arts and Culture Commission on November 9, 2021 recommended a revision of the ordinance (Exhibit A) that established the Arts and Culture Commission and Program in order to accommodate the inclusion of a youth member of the commission.

The Urbana Arts and Culture Commission and staff are hopeful that adding a youth member to the commission will help to guide the continued development of dynamic programs for youth 14-18 years old and support leadership in artistic and cultural programming among Urbana youth.

Summary of Changes Resulting from the Proposed Ordinance

The proposed ordinance would amend the existing Arts and Culture Commission and Program ordinance in the following ways:

Sec. 2-94 (f) Composition, appointment. The Urbana Arts & Culture Commission shall consist of nine (9) voting members appointed by the mayor, and approved by the council, from constituencies representing various segments of the community which have experience, expertise, or interest in the areas of the arts, cultural work, education, planning, neighborhood organizing, event planning, business, or another related field. Members shall be chosen from a diverse range of backgrounds, occupations, and artistic venues, with the intention of reflecting the full diversity of the Urbana community. In the making of appointments hereunder, the mayor may receive recommendations from civic groups.

"From time to time, the Mayor may appoint and City Council may approve the appointment of one (1) resident of the City of Urbana to the Urbana Arts and Culture Commission who has passed the age of 14 but who has not reached the age of 18. This Youth member will not have the authority to vote on any matter considered by the Arts and Culture Commission which may bind the commission, the City, or any of its departments but may vote on motions to make recommendations to the Mayor or City Council that are non-binding. This member shall have a one (1) year term renewable by Mayoral appointment and which will end upon the member's 18th birthday."

~~All members shall be voting members.~~

Discussion

Staff emphasize that this change will bring numerous benefits, including but not limited to: providing a framework for deepening the City of Urbana's commitment to providing programs and services for young adults; cultivating an appreciation for public service and municipal leadership development for Urbana youth; and ensuring the needs and interests of young people are better reflected in commission composition.

Recommendation

Staff recommends that the City Council approve the ordinance with placement on the City Council consent agenda to amend the Arts and Culture Commission and Program ordinance as presented and include a youth member in commission composition.
