About the Urbana Public Arts Program

In 2008, the Urbana Public Arts Program and Commission were established by the Urbana City Council to foster a city where all residents — emerging artists, established artists, and “non-artists” alike — can engage in the arts and where artists can thrive and feel valued.

This program is partially supported by a grant from the Illinois Arts Council, a state agency.

Current Programs

- Urbana Arts Grants
- Art at the Market
- Art Now!
- Artist of the Corridor
- The Urbana Sculpture Project
- Municipal Building Projects
