SUBJECT: Discussion on Murals on Glass 2015-2017

Update

This third cycle of Murals on Glass, 53 artworks were submitted by 15 artists. The initiative received more applications than in the 2013-2014 cycle, which saw only 30 pieces from 11 artists; but worse than the initiative's first cycle in 2012, which received 100 pieces from 20 artists.

On June 24, the Murals on Glass jury met to review all submissions. Members of the jury were Virginia Waaler, Matt Cho, Cynthia Chandler, Maria Lux, and Pauline Tannos. Slat Paintings by Nathan Westerman and Arles Morning by Phil Strang were selected, and will be installed on the east windows of the Civic Center and the windows of the Urbana Business Association office, respectively.

Recommendation

Staff recommends that members of the commission share any comments or suggestions they might have for Murals on Glass.
