Samuel Johnson asked if any decision had been made regarding the installation of cameras at the corner of Fairview and Goodwin to monitor the activity at that location. He also asked if signs were going to be posted at King Park to allow cars to park for short periods to unload/load. Assistant Chief Connolly stated that he would check on what, if any, decisions had been made and get back to Mr. Johnson.

Dorothy Carter reported that she is circulating a petition in the neighborhood in support of having additional “School Crossing” signs posted around the King School area. When the petitions have been signed, she will present them to Alderman Robert Lewis.

Assistant Chief Connolly reported that police will be very visible on Halloween. He also reminded everyone to drive carefully and watch for children who are out trick or treating.
