B. Violations

(1) Any property on which on which criminal nuisance activity occurs may be declared a criminal nuisance property. No property shall be declared a criminal nuisance property unless it is proven by a preponderance of the evidence that there has been three (3) or more instances of nuisance activity within a six-month period of time.

(2) Any person or person in charge who (a) encourages or permits a property to become a nuisance property as defined in Subsection A.; (b) allows a property to continue as a nuisance property; (c) fails to implement reasonable and warranted measures, as specified by the police chief, shall be in violation of this section. In determining whether any person or person in charge implemented reasonable and warranted measures, the trier of fact shall consider, at least, the same factors enumerated in subsections (3)(a) through (3)(f).

(3) Each day that a violation of this section continues shall be considered a separate and distinct offense. The fine for violation of this Section shall be no less than $300.00 per incident per day and no more than $750.00 per incident per day or the maximum per incident allowed by the Code of Ordinances, whichever is greater. Such fine shall be a judgment against the guilty person(s), owner(s), occupant(s), or person(s) in charge jointly and severally. In establishing the amount of any fine, the hearing officer may consider any of the following factors:

a. The actions taken by the person in charge/owner/occupant to mitigate or correct the nuisance activities at the property.

b. The repeated or continuous nature of the problem.

c. The magnitude or gravity of the problem.

d. How cooperative the person in charge/owner/occupant is with the City of Urbana in abating.

e. The cost to the city of investigating, correcting, or attempting to correct the nuisance activities.

f. Any other factor deemed relevant by the trier of fact. Evidence of a property's general reputation and/or the reputation of the persons in it, or frequenting it, shall be admissible.

(4) If a person or person in charge is found guilty of a violation of this section, the court shall, in addition to fining the party or parties, order the person(s) in charge/owner/occupant to take reasonable, timely, and lawful measures to abate the nuisance activity, including specifying deadlines for the same. The court shall further order the the person or person in charge to pay the reasonable and necessary moving costs for persons displaced due to the closing of a criminal nuisance property. However, no costs shall be granted to persons whom the court finds were involved in creating or allowing the criminal nuisance activity at that property.

(5) In addition to the penalties above, the City of Urbana may, at its discretion, take the following actions:

(a) Suspend the rental registration at a criminal nuisance property, if such property is rented or leased. If such registration is suspended, the owner(s) of the property shall close and secure said property against all unauthorized access, use, and occupancy for a period of not less than thirty (30) days, or more than 180 days. If the City suspends the rental license of a property, the person in charge, or the owner/occupant of the property, if those persons are different than the person in charge, shall receive written notice from the City's Finance Department that his/her rental registration for the criminal nuisance property is suspended. The suspension of any registration shall not release or discharge the license holder from paying fees or fines under this Code, nor shall such registration holder be released from criminal prosecution or further civil proceedings.

Section Two.

This Ordinance, as amended, shall be in full force and effect, and shall be controlling, immediately upon its passage and approval.

Section Three.

Said persons may make application for a grant from this fund when so displaced. Any such funds disbursed shall be repaid to the City, jointly and severally, by the persons(s)/person(s) in charge/owner of the criminal nuisance property found by the Court to be guilty of violation(s) of this Section.
