APPROVED by the Mayor this 21st day of March, 1972.

Charles M. Zippodt, Mayor

EXPLANATION

On August 4, 1969, the City Council passed two ordinances to raise the respective rates of tax from 3/4 to 1%. The first ordinance, Municipal Retailers' Occupation Tax, in Section 6 thereof in an attempt to repeal the former 3/4 rate Retail Occupation Tax Ordinance misdescribes the former ordinance as the Municipal Service Occupation Tax Ordinance adopted July 17, 1967, whereas it should have referred to the Municipal Retailers' Occupation Tax passed July 17, 1967. As it was, it performed an effective service by repealing the former Municipal Service Tax Ordinance passed July 17, 1967, which we wanted to repeal anyway. Then the second ordinance, Municipal Service Occupation Tax, attempted to repeal the former 3/4 rate Municipal Service Occupation Tax Ordinance, but misdescribed it and instead referred to the Municipal Retailers' Occupation Tax Ordinance adopted April 15, 1968 (there was no such ordinance). It should have referred to the Municipal Service Occupation Tax Ordinance adopted April 15, 1968. (As we have seen, the Municipal Service Occupation Tax Ordinance, passed July 17, 1967, was already repealed in the Municipal Retailers' Occupation Tax Ordinance passed August 4, 1969.)

After this repealer ordinance is enacted it will leave on the books only the Municipal Retailers' Occupation Tax Ordinance passed August 4, 1969, and the Municipal Service Occupation Tax Ordinance passed August 4, 1969.
