(1) Building permit: Building permit fees for all new construction except single and two family detached dwellings shall be based on table 1, entitled "Square Foot Construction Costs," as such table 1 may be revised and published from time to time by the Building Officials and Code Administrators, International, Incorporated in its publication entitled "Building Officials and Code Administrators Magazine." The fee for a building permit for the construction of a new building or structure, including additions, shall be at the rate of one and 50/100 dollars ($1.50) per thousand dollars ($1,000.00) of the construction costs calculated by multiplying the gross square footage of the new building, structure or addition by the square foot construction cost found in table 1 of this section as amended. Such fees are nonrefundable.

(2) Single and two family detached dwellings: A permit for a single family detached dwelling shall cost one hundred fifty dollars ($150.00).

(3) Tent permit: A permit for the erection of a tent having a gross area of four hundred (400) square feet or more shall cost ten dollars ($10.00).

(4) Temporary occupancies: A permit for the erection of a building or structure housing a temporary (T) occupancy other than a tent including garages shall cost a fee computed at the rate of four dollars ($4.00) per thousand dollars ($1,000.00) of estimated cost, but not less than fifteen dollars ($15.00), except for sheds of less than one hundred (100) square feet and fences, for which a fee of ten dollars ($10.00) is required.

(5) Alteration/renovation: The fee for a permit for the alteration, renovation and/or remodeling of a building or structure shall be computed at the rate of four dollars ($4.00) per thousand dollars ($1,000.00) of the estimated cost not including electrical, plumbing and heating ventilating and air conditioning, but not less than fifteen dollars ($15.00).

(6) Demolition: The fee for a permit for the demolition of a building or structure other than an accessory building including detached garages shall be at the rate of five dollars ($5.00) per thousand dollars ($1,000.00) of the estimated cost of demolition but not less than twenty-five dollars ($25.00).

(7) Estimated cost: The term "estimated cost" as used in this subsection (B) includes the cost of all services, labor, materials, use of scaffolding and any other appliances or devices entering into and necessary to the prosecution and completion of the work ready for occupancy; provided that the cost of excavation or grading, and of painting, decorating or other work that is merely for embellishment or not necessary for the safe and lawful use of the building or structure is not deemed a part of such work.

(8) Work without a permit: For all work commenced without a building permit for which a building permit is required, the fee shall be double the normal permit fee. Such work must comply with all other requirements of the Building Code.

(9) Plan review fee schedule: The plan review fee applies to all plans for new construction, including additions. Such plan reviews include a review of all applicable city regulations including but not limited to zoning, building, electrical, plumbing and HVAC regulations. Plan review fees shall be non-refundable and shall be computed as follows:

Volume (cubic feet)	Plan Review Fee
0 - 10,000	$ 50.00
10,001 - 20,000	75.00
20,001 - 40,000	125.00
40,001 - 60,000	160.00
60,001 - 80,000	200.00
80,001 - 100,000	230.00
100,001 - 150,000	260.00
150,001 - 200,000	290.00
Over 200,000	290.00 plus $3.00 for each 10,000 cubic feet over 200,000

Plan reviews for assembly (A) and institutional (I) uses and mercantile covered malls over five thousand (5,000) square feet shall be 1.5 times the fees as computed from the table above.

Remodeling and/or renovation plan review fees shall be charged on remodeling or renovation projects exceeding twenty five thousand dollars ($25,000.00) at the rate of 0.002 times the cost of the project.

Plan review fees shall accompany the application and are non-refundable. Single and two family detached dwellings and temporary (T) occupancies including residential garages shall be exempt from plan review fees. The Building Official may waive the plan review fee for structures under 5,000 cubic feet in cases involving minor structural repairs or the remodeling of existing buildings.

(10). Special Flood Hazard Area Development Permit:

The fee for a development permit pursuant to Section 5-500 of this Code shall be twenty five dollars ($25.00).
