- (e) Notice of Determination.

The owner of the animal shall be notified in writing of the determination of the hearing officer either personally or by first class mail to the owner's last known address.

  - (2) If the determination is that the animal is dangerous, the owner may redeem the animal as otherwise provided in this Chapter, subject to the requirements in this Chapter regarding animals found to be dangerous.

- (3) If the determination is that the animal is vicious, the animal may not be redeemed, and the notice shall also state that the animal shall be euthanized within five working days of the date of the notice unless the owner requests a stay of ten working days during which to file a complaint for court review of the hearing officer's determination.
- (f) Failure to Appear.
If the owner of the animal cannot be found or does not appear in person or by legal counsel for the hearing, the hearing officer shall make a determination by default, without need of any testimony or other evidence, that the animal is vicious or dangerous, as well as abandoned, and the animal shall be euthanized without further notice to the owner.
- (g) Time for Euthanasia – Stay.
Upon a determination that the animal is vicious, it shall be euthanized after five working days from the date of the notice to the owner, unless the owner within that time period delivers to the Animal Control Warden at 400 S. Vine St., Urbana, IL 61801, a request to stay the euthanasia for a period of ten working days for the purpose of filing a complaint for court review of the hearing officer's determination.
